About me

My name is Lucas Bivar and I have 18 years old. During the second year of my high school I took an Arduino Course where I had contact with the microcontroller and with programming that piqued my interest about technology. Currently, I'm in first term of Computer Engineering at Federal Institute of Paraiba (IFPB). I love solving problems using programming and I'm interested in Artificial Intelligence, Computer Vision, Robotics and Software Engineering. I'm very proactive and I love teamwork.
